

You reached the end of this learning module. You are now able to:

- Securely send commands to a device either directly or through a gateway
- Receive commands from the app running on Bluemix, on the device
- Using SenseHat nodes from the NodeRED pallet to get input from sensor and send data back (Or used the senseHat simulator)