You reached the end of this learning module. You are now able to:

- Program the device part of the IoT application (program on the Raspberry Pi)

- How to install new packages for the Function node

- Install new nodes to the palate when running on the Raspberry Pi

- Use the Exec node to run system commands

- Connect the Raspberry Pi to the Quickstart service of the IBM Internet of Things platform to publish and visualize data from the Raspberry Pi